DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment and remarks, filed on September 20, 2007, has been made of record and entered. No amendment was made to the claims.

Claims 1-4 are currently pending in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102(e)

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Reisinger et al., "hereinafter Reisinger", (PG Pub. No. US 2004/0028589).

Reisinger discloses a catalyst containing a layer on an inert carrier body comprising noble metals from the platinum group deposited on support materials, wherein the layer comprises platinum deposited on compounds selected from the group consisting of metal oxides including mixed oxide of zirconia/ceria (see page 5, claim 1). The support further comprises ceria/zirconia mixed oxide, which is stabilized with praseodymia, yttria, neodymia, lanthana or mixtures thereof (see page 5, claims 4 & 5). The zirconia/ceria (or zirconia-rich) contains at least more than 50% by weight of zirconia, and the balance is the stabilizer, such as lanthana, yttria, etc.

(see page 2, paragraph [0018]). The support also contains ceria/zirconia (or ceria-rich) with ceria being contained in the amount of from 60 to 90 wt.% relative to the weight of the mixed oxide, and the stabilizer can be contained in this mixed oxide in the amount of from 0.5 to 10 wt.% relative to the total weight of the stabilized material (see page 2, paragraph [0019]).

There is no patentable distinction seen between the claimed catalyst and that disclosed by Reisinger. Thus, the claims are anticipated by the teaching of the reference.

Response to Applicants' Arguments

4. Applicants' response, filed on 09/20/07, has been fully considered, but not deemed persuasive for the following reasons.

Applicants urged, that "Reisinger does not indicate a ratio of the metal oxide in the loading layer. Specifically, disclosed Examples comprise alumina-composite oxide-...etc." This is noted but not found persuasive because the disclosed invention is not being limited to the Examples in the reference only, but also the invention as a whole and the teachings within the reference should also be considered as well. While there might be no examples exemplifying the claimed metal ratios, however, in view of the teaching of the platinum amount (which is from 0.01 to 5 wt.%) and the stabilizer amount (which is 0.5 to 20 wt.% of lanthana) contained in the coating layer, which provides for the amount of the metal oxide being more than 80% by weight (see Reisinger on page 5, claims 1 & 8).

The claimed metal oxide ratio does not appear to be patentably distinguished from the disclosed metal oxide ratio. Thus, the rejection is maintained.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Conclusion

6. Claims 1-4 are pending. Claims 1-4 are rejected. No claims are allowed.
